

Courageous Week 4

---

There is no trial or situation impossible for God. At some point in life we all face problems that seem impossible for us to overcome. The truth is most challenges God allows to come our way are impossible for us to overcome but not impossible for God. God has never faced an impossible challenge. When Israel attacks the fortified city of Jericho, this appeared to be problematic for Israel, but this was no problem for God. God had a plan for victory. Your situation may seem impossible for you to overcome, but remember, what is impossible for you is not impossible for God. Take courage knowing God has never faced an impossible challenge.

Read Joshua 6:1-21

1. Based on the video you just watched, what most stood out to you?
2. One of the main reasons people stop short of God's promises is because they focus on the problem instead of God. Why is it so easy to focus on a problem and not God?
3. How has your perspective of God's power been clouded by your problems?
4. In your group, discuss ways that God has moved in powerful ways.
5. God's timing is often slower than our desires. Describe how faith and patience work together.
6. God promises to give us directions first and then outcomes. Talk about the importance of focusing your attention on God's directions and not future outcomes.
7. Based on this discussion, what do you need to do differently this week?
